

Representative Matt Windschitl

Representative Matt Windschitl was first elected in 2006. He works for Union Pacific Railroad, is a gunsmith, and a member of the United States Marine Reserves. Matt returned from a six-month tour of duty in Iraq in 2005.

He was born on December 30, 1983, in Marshalltown, Iowa. His father, Christopher, works for Union Pacific Railroad, and his mother, Jody, runs Double Barrel Shooters Supply. Matt does minor gunsmithing for Double Barrel Shooters Supply, when he is not working as a conductor for the railroad. Matt has two older brothers, Adam and Jeremiah. Growing up, Matt was home schooled.

On July 26, 2003, Matt married his wife, Ivy, and together they have two children, Anna and Addy.

Matt proudly served his country in the United States Marine Reserve. He was a mechanic with Engineer Maintenance Company, 4th Marine Logistics Group, 4th Maintenance Battalion. Matt left the Marine Corp Reserves as a Sergeant.